

Celebrating performers.
Supporting studios.
Protecting the craft.

A publication spotlighting dancers, athletes, and performers –
focused on professionalism, safety, and growth.

Dent Model Magazine is a performance-focused publication dedicated to highlighting growing dancers, athletes, and creators in a responsible, studio-aligned way.*

We work alongside:

- Dance studios
- Parents
- Photographers
- Industry professionals

Our goal is not hype—it's clarity, confidence, and safe exposure for young performers.

Our focus is making a positive impact on studios, artists, and families.

Those who collaborate with Dent typically value:

- Positive representation of their dancers and their craft.
- Editorial features that reflect training, discipline, and growth
- Exposure that parents feel good about
- A publication that respects studio culture and boundaries

We never publish dancers without parent consent and encourage studio awareness when dancers are featured.

Opportunities

Dent offers multiple ways for studios and dancers to be featured:

- Studio Spotlights
 - Group or multi-dancer features celebrating your program, season, or milestones.
 - Individual Dancer Features
 - Age-appropriate, editorial or performance-based photography features.
 - Dedicated studio magazine issues

Beyond the Magazine

SOCIAL

Dent also operates an active Instagram community where we:

- Share featured dancers
- Increase talent visibility
- Publish educational resources for parents & performers
- Promote positivity and encouragement to artists of all experience levels.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Dent is supported by a performance-focused photography with experience in:

- Studio branding imagery
- Editorial dance portraits
- Studio photo events/fundraisers
- Dedicated studio features or special issues
- Recital/Comp photography

Many studios already have a trusted photographer—and that's great.

For studios that:

- Don't currently have a go-to resource
- Need editorial-style imagery for a specific project
- Want to collaborate on a magazine-style studio feature or something else.

We're happy to help when it makes sense. At your location or our Dayton Studio.

How to Connect

There's no formal application or obligation.
